TRAININGS

6 Week Training

Sebiz Institute (May 2017 - July 2017)

I have had a 6 weeks internship in php technology at Sebiz institute in Chandigarh where I built an ecommerce website integrated with Mysql.

6 Month Internship

Avaptech Solution Pvt Ltd (July 2018 – Dec 2018)

I am having my 6 Month internship in Avaptech solutions where I came to learn about different scripting languages along with php like jquery, javascript. That's when my interest grew more towards Laravel framework. And on top of all sitting with company colleagues I came to know about how to face real time challenges.

JOB EXPERIENCE

Accenture Solution Pvt Ltd (Sep 2019 - Present)

Position – Software Engineering Associate

I am currently serving as software engineer in the organisation for 2 years. I belong to an entity ATCI (Advanced Technology Centres, India). I have got opportunity to work in two projects. Both were in different technologies.

Currently, I am working in SAP NGADAO project which is in SAPUI5 technology. We work for SAP client for the application visit management system (VMS) EC which is live deployed on production. There is other part NEO which is under development.

PROJECTS

Standard Life Aberdeen (Accenture)

I have experience working in company's real time project. The project works for an insurance company and based on financial industrial group. As a newbie in the project I started working on monitoring and handling request from client. But after 6 month of progress in the project and understanding how the flow is I started working on application maintenance and working on the incidents all by myself.

AxOne (Accenture)

In the next project, I have changed my skill completely to a different technology as SAP ui5 developer and working with Fiori Applications. My key role was to develop mobile application or web applications in SAP ui5 platform under the guidelines of Fiori. In this project I learned a lot more about a new technology & working with Odata service.

ABOUT ME

I am a generic person with a goal in my life. My eagerness makes me a hard worker, anxious to achieve my objectives. If I choose to bring an assignment, it's difficult to back me off. I have attitude of an explorer and possess strong wanderlust. I have the young new energy to learn and work with all my dedication.
